LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF THE HAMPTONS HOSTS FREE SHOWING OF AWARD-WINNING HBO FILM "IRON JAWED ANGELS"
Monday, July 12, 6:30 refreshments; 7 p.m. film

In celebration of the 90th anniversary of women's suffrage and the 90th anniversary of the formation of the League of Women Voters in 1920, the League of Women Voters of the Hamptons is hosting a free public showing of the 2004 award-winning HBO film "Iron Jawed Angels" on Monday, July 12, at the Ross School auditorium in East Hampton. Refreshments are at 6:30, with the two-hour film starting promptly at 7 p.m.

Directed by Katja von Garnier, "Iron Jawed Angels" recounts the inspirational story of the struggle of women to win the right to vote in the 1910's, leading up to the eventual ratification of the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution in August 1920. It features riveting performances by Hilary Swank as Alice Paul and Frances O'Connor as Lucy Burns, representing the younger generation of Suffragists; Angelica Huston as Carrie Chapman Catt, founder of the League of Women Voters, representing the more conservative older generation of Suffragists; Julia Ormond as labor lawyer Inez Mulholland; and Bob Gunton as President Woodrow Wilson.

The film will be shown in the Ross School's senior thesis building auditorium, on the left at 9 Goodfriend Drive, off Route 114.

For further information, call LWV president Carol Mellor at 631-537-6998.
